Job Description

Jerusa Lim and her spouse are currently seeking a compassionate, reliable, and experienced Home Support Worker to assist with day-to-day personal care and household tasks in their private residence in Vancouver, British Columbia. This is a unique opportunity for a dedicated individual who is passionate about providing personalized, in-home care and making a positive difference in the lives of others.

The successful candidate will become an integral part of the household, supporting the health, comfort, and independence of the family by offering consistent and professional caregiving services. The role requires someone who is attentive, respectful, and capable of working independently while maintaining a warm and supportive atmosphere in the home.
