RESPONSIBILITIES

- Coordinate administrative services across retail and wholesale operations, ensuring smooth integration of inventory, staffing, and compliance functions within a halal-certified business environment.
- Evaluate the operations of administrative departments to identify inefficiencies and implement improvements that support Iqbal Foods' high-volume retail and distribution workflows.
- Collect and record administrative and service fees related to vendor contracts, logistics, and regulatory filings, maintaining transparency and accuracy in financial documentation.
- Plan, organize, direct, control, and evaluate daily operations to ensure timely delivery of goods, accurate recordkeeping, and adherence to halal business practices.
- Direct and advise staff engaged in records management, security, finance, purchasing, and HR, fostering a collaborative and culturally respectful workplace.
- Direct and control corporate governance and regulatory compliance procedures, including halal certification tracking, CRA filings, and LMIA documentation, in alignment with federal and provincial standards.
- Prepare reports and briefs for management committees, summarizing operational performance, compliance status, and strategic recommendations for administrative enhancements.
- Organize and maintain inventory systems across retail and warehouse locations, ensuring stock accuracy, halal integrity, and timely replenishment.
- Supervise office and volunteer staff, providing training, oversight, and support to ensure consistent service delivery and adherence to company values.

- ACIS certification (Associate of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators) is considered a strong asset and will be reflected in paid advertisements. While not mandatory, it is highly advantageous for candidates involved in governance and regulatory compliance.
