- Physical and Occupational Therapy Support: Encourage and assist with prescribed physical exercises, follow recommendations from therapists, and help with mobility aids.
- Emotional and Social Support: Provide companionship, engage in social activities or hobbies, and communicate with family members about the senior's well-being.
- Monitoring and Reporting: Observe and document changes in symptoms or behaviour, report concerns to medical professionals, and maintain accurate care records.
- Household Management: Assist with light housekeeping tasks, manage laundry and personal belongings, and coordinate additional home maintenance as needed.
- Safety and Emergency Preparedness: Ensure a safe living environment, be prepared for emergencies.

Qualifications:

To excel in this role, you should possess:

- Completion of secondary school is required.

- Personal Support Worker Certificate/relevant education
- A First Aid & CPR Certificate
- A caring and empathetic nature, demonstrating genuine concern for the well-being of the individual.
- Clear communication skills to engage effectively with the family member and relay information.
- The ability to follow instructions and collaborate with family members and medical personnel.
- Prior experience in caregiving or healthcare is advantageous but not required.

Benefits:

Taking on the role of a Family Caregiver in our private household offers numerous benefits, including:

- An hourly rate of $21.00, providing fair compensation for your dedicated care.
- The opportunity to make a significant difference in the life of an individual and their family.
- Valuable experience in providing personalized care and support.
- A welcoming and supportive environment within a private home setting.
